My Only Sister.

BY MRS. M. J. A. KELLY.

Music by Fr. Werner, Steinbrecher.

1 Only
sister! by that word Worlds of thought within are stirred— Thought that throbs my aching head— Thought that brings to me the dead. 2. On - ly sister! I had three, In the days of childhood's glee, Ere the ruthless monster Death Breathed on them his pois'nous breath.

7th Verse.
7. Only sister! By that word Let far sweeter thoughts be stirred; God to me the three hath given, One on earth and two in heaven.

MY ONLY SISTER.—Continued.

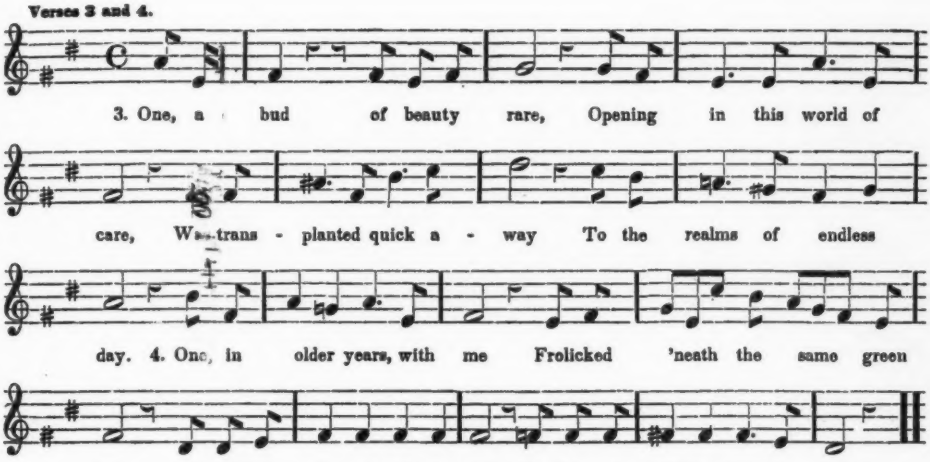
Verses 3 and 4.



3. One, a bud of beauty rare, Opening in this world of care, Was trans - planted quick a - way To the realms of endless day. 4. One, in older years, with me Frolicked 'neath the same green tree. 'Tis there a - lone, in sad de - cay, She sleeps the silent years a - way.

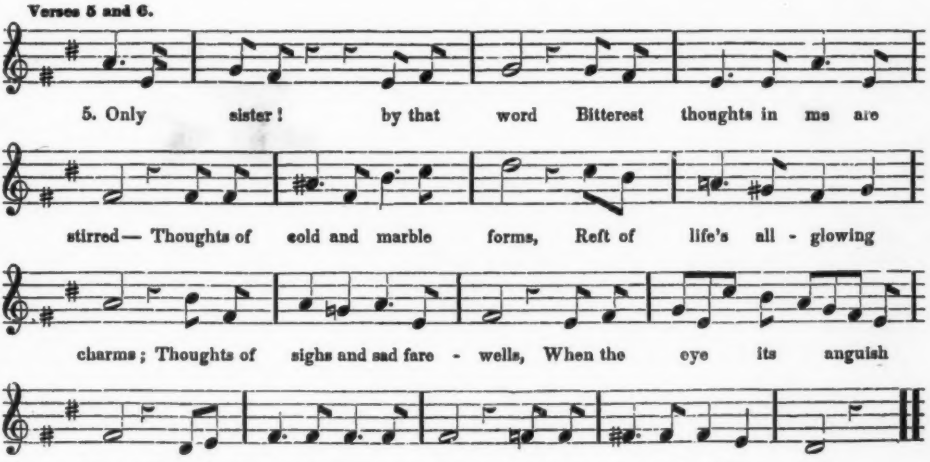
Verses 5 and 6.



5. Only sister! by that word Bitterest thoughts in me are stirred— Thoughts of cold and marble forms, Reft of life's all - glowing charms; Thoughts of sighs and sad fare - wells, When the eye its anguish tells— Thoughts of pall, and grave, and bier, Weeds of woe and falling tear.
